

Manna's Martial Arts

Online Classroom

FAQs

How do I get to class? Registered students will receive a link and access code to the Zoom classroom. Log into Zoom 5 minutes before the class start time. Warm-up exercises will be included in class.

Do I need special computer equipment? No, Zoom is a cloud-based meeting system so there is nothing to download. Basic system requirements include working camera and speakers, Windows XP and later, or macOS X with macOS 10.7 and later.

Can I use mobile device to attend class? Yes, Zoom is compatible with IOS and Android. However, we recommend that you use a device with a large enough screen to see the demonstrations in detail while you follow along with the techniques.

What should I do if I have trouble connecting to the Zoom classroom or other technical issues? Logging on early and being patient are key aspects to resolving most internet issues. In the unlikely event that the Zoom link does not work, check your email for an updated link.

Where can I view a recording of the classroom session? Registered students will receive a link to access the classroom session.

Will the classroom protocols and etiquette be the same? Yes, students are expected to salute the American flag upon classroom entry and exit, bow to instructors, bow to other class members, and behave in a disciplined and respectful manner at all times. In addition students are expected to Ki Hap whenever appropriate.

Do I still need to wear a uniform? Yes, students are required to wear Manna's Martial Arts uniforms with the correct patches, trim, and belts. In addition, students are required to wear sparring gear during sparring exercises.

What if I'm late to class or need to excuse myself early? Late classroom entries are not permitted except when there are widespread technical issues. If you need to leave class early, inform the instructor beforehand. Before leaving class bow to the instructor, salute the American flag, and then exit the Zoom meeting.

What if I have a question during class? Instructors will periodically survey the room for questions. You may also post a question in the Chat that will be answered at the end of the class.

Will you offer asynchronous classes in the future? Our current online classes will be live; however, you can view instructional videos on Manna's Martial Arts Youtube page.

Please feel free to contact us at online@manna.us